Refunds and Cancellations – please note: Once a student enrolls onto or starts a course then fails to attend or leaves, for whatever reason, all fees are still payable and no refunds apply. Refunding of a course will normally only be made if the course is cancelled by the college. Full refunds will be made if a course is cancelled at or prior to its second meeting. Students in attendance when a course is cancelled at other times will receive proportionate refunds. Please visit www.sgscol.ac.uk/finance for SGS Fees, Charges and Refunds Policy.

Section 10: Consent to process and declaration

I confirm that I have received information and advice about my choice of learning programme through the prospectus and from College staff. Because of this information and advice I can state that:

- I understand the entry requirements of my chosen learning programme.
- The learning programme suits my needs.
- I am aware of the financial costs of my course.
- I know what support and advice is available to me, and also what financial support is available.

I agree to abide by the College regulations, and to inform the College in writing of the following:

- Any medical condition which may affect my performance on the learning programme or in other College activities.
- Any change of circumstances that may affect my fee status.

I confirm that all the information on this form is correct. I understand that if I have declared false information the provider may take action against me to reclaim the tuition fees and any support costs provided.

ESFA Privacy Notice 2020/21

This privacy notice is issued by the Education and Skills Funding Agency (ESFA), on behalf of the Secretary of State for the Department of Education (DfE). It is to inform learners how their personal information will be used by the DfE, the ESFA (an executive agency of the DfE) and any successor bodies to these organisations.

For the purposes of relevant data protection legislation, the DfE is the data controller for personal data processed by the ESFA. Your personal information is used by the DfE to exercise its functions and to meet its statutory responsibilities, including under the Apprenticeships, Skills, Children and Learning Act 2009 and to create and maintain a unique learner number (ULN) and a personal learning record (PLR). Your information will be securely destroyed after it is no longer required for these purposes.

Your information may be used for education, training, employment and well-being related purposes, including for research. The DfE and the English European Social Fund (ESF) Managing Authority (or agents acting on their behalf) may contact you in order for them to carry out research and evaluation to inform the effectiveness of training.

Your information may also be shared with other third parties for the above purposes, but only where the law allows it and the sharing is in compliance with data protection legislation. You can agree to be contacted by other third parties by ticking any of the following boxes:

- About courses or learning opportunities.
- For surveys and research.
- By post.
- By phone.
- By e-mail.

Further information about use of and access to your personal data, details of organisations with whom we regularly share data, information about how long we retain your data, and how to change your consent to being contacted, please visit:

WECA Privacy Statement

I understand that if my address is within the West of England Combined Authority (WECA) area, the following WECA Privacy Notice applies to me:

Data Protection Act 2018 and GDPR

SGS College takes its responsibilities as a data controller very seriously and is wholly committed to only using the personal data we hold for legitimate educational purposes and to keep you informed, in accordance with the law. The College's privacy notice is intended to provide information about how we collect, process and store your personal data. It also explains how we might share your data with third parties and explains your rights in relation to how we use your data. Please read it carefully at <https://www.sgscol.ac.uk/privacy>

I declare that to the best of my knowledge the information I have given is a true and correct record and I give my consent to SGS College for processing this information in accordance with data protection legislation.

We will use your personal details to create or verify your Unique Learner Number by passing your details to the Learning Records Service (LRS). You cannot opt out of having a ULN created. However, you can opt in to enable us to stay in touch with you. We would like to send you targeted information about future courses and services, which may be of interest to you.

SOUTH GLOUCESTERSHIRE AND STROUD COLLEGE LEARNER IT CODE OF CONDUCT 2019/20

South Gloucestershire & Stroud College expects all learners to use the computer network and software resources provided responsibly. All members of the College must comply with the "IT Acceptable Use – Users" Policy and are subject to the following conditions of use. Failure to adhere to this code of conduct may invoke the Enabling Positive Behaviour and Disciplinary Policy and Procedure.

- You must accept and comply with the "IT Acceptable Use – Users" Policy.
- You must not try to use any computer without permission or try to alter or delete work belonging to other people.
- If you think someone else knows your password you should change it immediately.
- College IT facilities are provided for college business or course-related activity only, not for personal use.
- You must not store or introduce any computer games, personal music or movies on any college computer or network space.
- You must not tamper with IT equipment, delete software, or carry out any activity that may prevent others from using the equipment.
- Food and drink are not allowed near computers or other IT equipment.
- When using the Internet you must not enter sites or send e-mails that contain any abusive, sexist, pornographic or unlawful material (see the Social Media Code of Conduct). All Internet access is logged and monitored.
- You must not try to install or download any software that has not been provided by the College.
- You must not make any use of the Internet that would bring the name of the College into disrepute.
- The College accepts no responsibility for problems caused by loss of service or for damage to files and data. It is your responsibility to ensure essential files are backed up onto USB Flash drive(s) for example.
- In using information from the Internet or creating web pages you must make sure you do not break copyright law or plagiarise the work of others.
- Under the terms of the Data Protection Act you must not store any information about any living person without agreement from the College Data Protection Officer.
- You should not put any unlawful information onto any system.

You must follow any local IT guidelines around the College, e.g. about printing or file management as explained by College staff.

If you do not understand any of these conditions please ask a member of staff for advice and guidance.

We may wish to collect the following information:

SGS College would like to make you aware that some or all of your learning course may be delivered via internet delivery.

To ensure that you are able to access this learning we would like to ask you some questions about your ability to access such learning:
