Quality Strategy

1. Introduction

- 1.1. South Gloucestershire & Stroud College's (SGS) commitment to quality extends to all learners, customers and clients. Our mission is to positively change people's lives and add value to the social and economic wellbeing of our communities, by providing high quality, innovative, accessible education and training in a friendly culture of mutual respect and support.

2. Statement

- 2.1. The Quality Strategy is underpinned by a College culture of hard work and high expectation, with a strong commitment to continuous improvement, the pursuit of excellence and high standards. The Quality Strategy seeks to put the learner, their enjoyment, success, progress and progression at the heart of all that we do.
- 2.2. The strategy will ensure that our systems and processes are SIMPLE, flexible and able to evolve to the changing nature of the further education sector.
- 2.3. Our culture of quality improvement depends on the competence of our managers and therefore seeks to build upon our outstanding leadership and management; supportive College systems and the commitment and understanding of a skilled, qualified and flexible workforce. This culture operates through systematic quality systems, understood and complied with by all, which leads to meaningful and robust judgements and the instigation of appropriate actions to address poor standards of provision or service: building on strengths in order to ensure continuous quality improvement
- 2.4. The culture of high expectations is delivered through core values, culture and behaviours as agreed by the Corporation. Leaders role model the values, attitudes and behaviours. Staff will be involved in planning and continuous improvement. The task of leaders is to build a climate of trust and mutual respect and develop staff capabilities
- 2.5. The strategy is based upon adding value to our learners through a challenging and engaging curriculum that leads to exceptional outcomes and levels of service and developing a self-critical culture of continuous improvement where the needs of all our learners, staff, customers, communities and employers can be met.

3. Objectives:

- 3.1. All staff have an unrelenting focus on improving the quality of teaching, learning and assessment and adding value to the outcomes achieved by our staff and learners

- 3.2. Sustained quality excellence requires continuous improvement. This means there is always room for improvement
- 3.3. SGS will continue to benchmark itself against other top performing colleges but recognises that year on year improvement is a better measure of success
- 3.4. Quality improvement will be applied to every facet of the College's work in order to constantly review and improve the services it provides
- 3.5. Quality will be achieved by anticipating and preventing problems rather than by detecting and correcting them after they occur
- 3.6. Each employee is a customer for work provided by other staff, with a right to expect good work from others, and an obligation to contribute high calibre work

4. Implementation

- 4.1. The College's approach to quality is based on continuous improvement operating at all levels and areas, both corporate and curriculum; and the ability to accurately identify strengths and areas for improvement and set a clear agenda leading to detailed plans for improvement. Staff are managed against these standards and expectations and all staff have the right to regular individual supervision ("1:1s") and an annual and mid-year appraisal.
- 4.2. Commitment to quality is an integral aspect in the delivery of College strategic aims and objectives. These objectives take into account the external environment in which the College operates and defines the processes needed to ensure the achievement of these objectives. To achieve our objectives all quality systems are embedded into the day-to-day functions of the College and clearly modelled and supported by managers and leaders. The College will engage an external review agency annually to quicken the impact of improvement activities.
- 4.3. College policies are set to articulate strategy and to measure that processes work effectively. Procedures enable processes to operate consistently.

Procedures are regularly monitored and evaluated to identify problems, for which corrective actions are implemented and they themselves are monitored and reviewed. Continual improvement is achieved by raising standards as performance targets are reached, reviewing objectives accordingly and benchmarking College performance against the highest performing colleges in the country and the 90th percentile.
- 4.4. The College defines quality in terms of learner enjoyment, learner success, learner progress (including level 3 value added and progress towards, and in, GCSE English and mathematics), excellent teaching and learning, consistency, plus customer and partner satisfaction. Quality flows from the skill and expertise with which the College and its staff deliver and manage education. Internally, all staff are, at all times, customers and suppliers for their colleagues
